

NARBERTH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO FORM

Tuesday evening, January 25th, a meeting will be held in the "old" Post office, now the office of Messrs. Shand and Nash, for the purpose of organizing a business men's association for Narberth—or as they call it in Ardmore and Cynwyd, a Chamber of Commerce. All professional men and merchants, mechanics, real estate dealers, insurance men are invited to be present and help to organize.

The object is co-operation in all directions and you are urgently invited to be present. Meeting will open at 8 o'clock sharp.

The Committee.

Credit Bureau for Main Line is Plan of Business Men

COMMERCE CHAMBER TO HEAR
EXPERT AT FEBRUARY SESSION

For United Action

Legal and practical aspects of the proposal to establish a credit bureau for members of the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce were discussed on Monday night at the meeting of that organization, held in the Merion Title & Trust Building.

E. A. Wohlert, of Narberth, was present and said he would be interested in such bureau and that, probably, Narberth business men, through an association of their own, might be prepared to join in it. It was also suggested that Bryn Mawr business men could be invited to join.

The meeting, at which Dr. J. Watson Goddard presided, finally decided to invite William Smedley, a member of the advisory council of the Co-operators, in Philadelphia, and an expert on the subject of credit bureaus, to address the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce at its next meeting, to be held February 14, at the Merion Title Building.

A report by Cecil H. Vaughan showed that a number of members of the Chamber of Commerce have neglected to pay their dues for the current year and it was proposed to call this to the attention of the delinquents at once.

At the meeting in February, Mr. Smedley will go into all phases of the credit bureau idea and will be prepared to answer any questions his hearers may ask. Mr. Smedley's promise to attend was obtained by John K. Baer.

Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The Women's Auxiliary of the Harold D. Speakman Post 356, of Narberth, held a meeting on Monday evening, January 10, at the Legion House. The meeting, which was fairly well attended, was a most enthusiastic one. The Legion and Auxiliary will give an entertainment, to which everyone is invited, on Friday evening, January 28, in Elm Hall.

Activity of Penn- sylvania League of Women Voters

Program of Woman's Organization for January, February and March
Intercounty Conferences.

Friday, January 21, at Philadelphia—For Philadelphia, Delaware, Chester, Montgomery, Bucks, Lancaster, York, Adams, Berks, Lehigh, Northampton, Cumberland, Monroe, Pike, Carbon.

It is planned to have the State chairman or a national or State director attend each one of these conferences. So many interesting reports were filed by county chairmen after the Pittsburgh convention that the chairmen will be asked to read their convention reports. The primary purpose of these conferences is to discuss the program and the county chairmen's difficulties. If an evening public meeting can be arranged by the local chairmen, the State chairman will be glad to speak on "The Revision of the State Constitution."

Turkey Dinner

NEXT THURSDAY—6:30 O'CLOCK

Community Club members and friends, make sure of enjoying one good meal next week by reserving your places for the Woman's Community Club dinner, Thursday evening, January 27, 6:30 P. M., at the Y. M. C. A. building.

A flock of prime turkeys is being fattened for the occasion and will be served with all the fixings from cranberry sauce to mince pie and coffee.

Get your reservations in early.

The cost will be reduced to the pre-war level of $1.50 per person.

Dancing, Bridge and 500 will follow the dinner—all for the one price.

No similar bargain has been offered in Narberth in years.

Make sure of your place by sending reservations with check to Mrs. Harold C. Fenno, Box 15, Narberth.

All reservations must be in by Monday, January 24th. Mark your calendar.

THE FIRESIDE

It is unusual but a pansy was picked in a garden on Dudley Ave., on Jan. 8.

Miss Syndie Bolick, of Germantown, visited her sister Mrs. H. P. Moore,

Mr. A. C. Needham and wife from Manchester, Mass., spent a few days with his brother, A. W. Needham, of Chestnut Avenue.

A wooden bridge is under construction over the brook for the convenience of the folks on the West Side of Narbrook.

Mrs. E. C. Bachelor will entertain at luncheon on Tuesday, Mrs. R. J. Hamilton and Mrs. W. T. Abell, of Ardmore, Mrs. A. K. Gregory, of Cynwyd, and Mrs. W. H. Russell, of Ambler.

The many old friends of Charles E. Caldwell who formerly lived at 200 Woodside Avenue, are sorry to learn of his illness at his home in Atlantic City.

Don't forget the Home Bake at the Y. M. C. A. this (Saturday) afternoon, under the auspices of the Primary Department of the Presbyterian Sabbath School.

Conway Avenue is being embellished with three stone crossings: one at Price Avenue, one at Stuart, and one at the little lane between the homes of Messrs. Abel and Muhl, in Narbrook Park. This was a matter of co-operation, the borough supplying the material and Narbrook Park Improvement Association the labor. The children from that benighted section should now be able to get to school with dry feet.

Women's Community Club

ENTERTAINED BY LITERATURE
COMMITTEE

Yes, next Tuesday afternoon, at half after two—that is the date of the Dunsany afternoon at the Community Club. Mrs. A. K. Gregory, of Cynwyd, and Mrs. W. T. Abell and Mrs. R. J. Hamilton, of Ardmore, will be guests of the club. Let us have an overflowing room to give them welcome.

The Literature Department, under the able direction of Mrs. Robert F. Wood, will have charge of the program, which is a most interesting and comprehensive one, concluding with one of Dunsany's characteristic short dramas.

Program

Sketch of Lord Dunsany—Mrs. R. Wood.

Reading—The Wonderful Window—Mrs. F. T. Van Auken.

Reading—Poltarnes, Beholder of Ocean—Mrs. N. Southworth.

Group of two songs—Mrs. Noel Butler.

Play—Fame and the Poet.

Poet—Mrs. S. Barelay.

Prattle—Mrs. R. Wood.

Fame—Mrs. R. Nash.

This is a most attractive afternoon and would draw us to the club even if we did not know that the delightful social hour would follow in which we may have a chance to greet our guests.

President—Miss Helen Jones.
1st Vice-President—Miss Augusta Witherow.

2nd Vice-President—Miss Mabel Kirkpatrick.

Recording Secretary—Miss Dorothy Durbin.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Margaret Eyre.

Treasurer—Miss Bertha Redifer.

The Junior section of the Women's Community Club is now alive and growing—growing with an enthusiasm which will soon be proved by the fulfillment of a number of plans for interesting events in the near future. The Club has only had three organized meetings, but in that period has elected its officers, drawn up and adopted its by-laws, enrolled many girls as Charter-Members, and had time, too, for a great deal of fun in its social hours.

The last meeting of the Club was held on Thursday evening, January 13th, at the home of Miss Jane Laird. The beginning was made for a Glee Club, to be trained under the able leadership of Miss Augusta Witherow, and Narberth may look forward to many musical treats as soon as some of the features planned have been put into shape. And more than that, great plans were launched for our first dance, to be held in Elm Hall, on Saturday, March 5th. Every dance-goer in Narberth should tuck this date away in his memory, or better, his engagement book, for it's to be a dance to surprise even the most blasé of Terpsichoreans;—by its novel

Editorial

Montgomery County industrial workers were victims of 25 fatal accidents during 1920, according to figures issued today by Dr. Clifford B. Connelley, Commissioner of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry. Of that number, 15 were killed in manufacturing plants, 10 in public service work, and none in mines.

Throughout the State, there were 2,528 fatalities suffered by workmen during the last year. One thousand and nineteen miners were killed, 580 of the persons fatally injured were employees of public service corporations, and 929 worked in industrial plants.

The figures were compiled by the Bureau of Workmen's Compensation.

Gifford Pinchot, the State's Chief Forester, has announced that 410 Boy Scouts in Montgomery County have registered as Forest Guides. The boys have signed pledges to protect and conserve the forests, together with their wild life and plant life, and to prevent and extinguish forest fires.

The Pennsylvania Department of Forestry is supplying free buttons to all Forest Guides, and a copy of the Boy Scout's First Book of Forestry, issued by the Department of Forestry, is also given to each of them.

The Forest Guide organization was started in October, by Forester Pinchot and Solan L. Parkes, Scout Executive of Reading. Mr. Parkes has been made Chief Forest Guide of Pennsylvania.

To the Editor of Our Town:

"Flotow" noted and mentioned nine dogs in sight from the post office door, the dogs all or nearly all without a collar and therefore presumably also without a license. That is too bad; but the worst is that the LAV does not permit dogs to be at large WITH OR WITHOUT a collar or license. The license permits you to keep a dog but is not a permit for the dog to run at large over the public streets or private lawns. As the officers of the law seem to be afraid to offend the owners, it would seem well if the sufferers would take their shooting irons and bag the dogs. This would be fairly easy as some of the dogs are tame.

BOSSING YOUR DOLLARS

EVERY ONE LIKES TO BE A BOSS. It feels good to have some one working for us—

And the funny thing about it is That every fellow could be in the boss class

If he only had sense enough To put some of the iron men from his pay

Envelope to work for him. You work hard for your dollars— Make them work hard for you. How long have you been working? What have you got to show for it? Are you just breaking even. Or are you getting ahead? Who are the fellows that have made good?

The ones who got the big idea that THE TIME TO BEGIN TO SAVE IS THE DAY YOU BEGIN TO WORK. Every payday they set a dollar or two to work for them.

When a man works he gets wages. When a dollar works it gets interest. WHEN A MAN AND HIS DOLLARS WORK TOGETHER THEY GET PROSPERITY AND HAPPINESS.

It isn't what you earn, but what you save, That shows whether you are a success or a failure.

Do your Dollars slip out of your pockets, Or are they on the job looking after your Future?

PUT THEM TO WORK IN A SAFE PLACE.

Uncle Sam has a place for them to work Which is safe and profitable. Go to the Post Office every payday and buy

ONE DOLLAR TREASURY SAVING STAMPS,

Or have them put in your Pay Envelope Weekly. You will be surprised how soon they will Grow into a $25 Treasury Savings Certificate, earning 4% interest Compounded quarterly.

MORE GOOD MUSIC

Don't Miss This

The Methodist Church Choir, under Prof. Niece's leadership, will give a special and varied Musical Program on the last Sunday evening of January. Messrs. Joseph and William Nash will give a Violin and Cello recital and accompany the Chorus in the Anthem.

In addition to the Musicales activities of this Chorus Choir, many social affairs are given by the Chorus and also many entertainments given in their honor by members and friends of the Methodist Church who want to show their appreciation in a substantial way of the exceptional work of the Chorus.

A detailed list of the Musicales numbers for January 30th will be given in a later issue of Our Town.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

WEDS ON TRIP 'ROUND THE WORLD

William Thompson Harris of Narberth to Bring Home Bride

When William Thompson Harris, of Narberth, returns next June from a trip around the world, he will bring a bride with him.

She was Miss Ethel H. G. Williams, formerly of 2227 Delaney St., Philadelphia. She served as a nurse abroad during the war, and was decorated by Queen Mary of England.

They were married December 9 in St. John's Chapel at Soochow University, Shanghai, China.

Mr. Harris, who recently retired as president of an Arch St. printing firm, met Miss Williams in Cuba. Tourists who were with him on the globe-circling trip, formed the wedding party.

Carl Erdman, former captain of the Princeton track team, was best man. Miss Frances Berg, who was going to the East to join the American Church Mission at Shanghai, was bridesmaid. Bishop F. R. Graves, a friend of the bride, officiated at the marriage.

Miss Williams sailed from this country in September, arriving at Shanghai October 14. After a brief stay at St. Elizabeth Hospital, she went to Soochow University to study the Chinese language, preparatory to resuming her work as a nurse in a hospital directed by the Rockefeller Foundation.

Overseas during the war the young woman was in charge of a hospital in France.

Mr. Harris is fifty-five and his bride is twenty years his junior. Mrs. May Harris Eashy, of Narberth, is his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris left China after their wedding and are now in Manila, Philippine Islands.

JUNIOR SECTION WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

ty, attractiveness, and originality, they will have to admit that "a dance is more than a dance"—when it's a Junior Community Club One. After the business meeting, a social hour of "sports," refreshments, and dancing was spent. Ask any of our athletes who competed in the "fifty yard dash" or "basket ball throw" to tell you about it, or our "artists" to describe their life-like (?) exhibit of "clay" models. Consider all these things, and you won't need to ask—"Why is the Junior Section?"

OBITUARY

J. HOWARD WILSON

On Saturday, January fifteenth, there passed away a citizen of Narberth, who, during his fifteen years residence in our town, had many dear friends.

His interest in the Narberth Building and Loan Association, as one of its organizers and for thirteen years its president, was in great measure largely responsible for the present stability and high standing of that organization which, today, is one of the best associations in the State.

As vice-president of the Narberth Fire Company, his able advice has also helped to make of that organization an efficient and well managed asset to the community.

Mr. Wilson was for a time a member of our Borough Council and served as its president.

His many friends and associates in Narberth and Philadelphia will mourn his loss.

Jack—"Why is a figure 9 like a peacock?"
Jim—"Don't know, why?"
Jack—"Because it is nothing without a tail."

Scout News

January 17, twenty-four scouts were present with Scout Master. Mascot "Babe" Patten was absent the second time in two years on account of sickness.

Mr. Patten read a notice for all first class scouts to come to Bryn Mawr, January 21, to appear before the Court of Honor to qualify for Merit Badges.

Scout Wanamaker was awarded the prize for the best essay on the trip to the Navy Yard. Scout Ed. Gilfillan will be awarded the badge for winning the efficiency contest.

Thomas Merkle,
Scout Editor.

Elsie B. Lukens and Brothers Russell and Stanley wish to thank their many friends in Narberth, through Our Town, for their kind sympathy during the illness and death of their mother, Mrs. Ida E. Lukens.

More than $900,000 and possibly $1,000,000 has been added to the assessed valuation of real estate in Lower Merion township during the year 1920, according to reports presented to the Lower Merion Commissioners and the school board this week by Real Estate Assessor Albert Lee.

A meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. P. Lockwood, Haverford College, on Saturday afternoon, January 22, by the graduates of Wellesley College, who live on the Main Line. Wellesley College is about to start an endorsement campaign for $2,700,000. Mrs. George Bacon Wood, of Philadelphia, Miss Rachel Pfann, of the Philadelphia Bureau of Occupations for Trained Women, Miss Spelisky, of Germantown, and Mrs. Charles O. Alexander, of Merion, will describe the plans for the campaign. After the meeting tea will be served, and Mrs. Lockwood will be assisted by Mrs. Frederic Palmer, Jr., niece of Wellesley's former president, Alice Freeman Palmer. Mrs. Howard Cloud, of Ardmore, Miss Emily Allyn, of the Lyman School, Miss Harriet Blake, of the Baldwin School, and Mrs. W. H. Weimer, Jr., of Rosemont.

WOMEN'S FEDERATED CLUBS OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY CONVENE AT ARDMORE

The Women's Federated Clubs of Montgomery County will meet at Ardmore on Thursday, January 27th, at 10:30 A. M., in the Woman's Club House. It is seldom that Narberth club women are in such easy reach of these conventions. These conventions are too good to miss. You have heard that the Federated Clubs comprise thousands of women, but you do not realize what important work is being done by them, if you have never attended one of these gatherings. The Woman's Community Club is a part of this assemblage, in fact one of its members is an officer of the county. If you do not know who it is you can easily see her filling her office on Thursday. It is hoped there will be several to attend from the Narberth Club who have never been present before. If you go once you will make a great effort to attend in the future, no matter how inconvenient it may be. Take a box luncheon with you and stay for the afternoon session. There will be some one there you know and the noon hour is most informal.
